

NEWS FOR THE REST OF US

Vancouver event volunteer opportunities!

rabble.ca is one of the success stories of Canadian independent journalism, publishing news and columns by some of the best writers of the left, and providing exposure to new writers. You can read, hear and watch them in our original news, opinion, blogs, books, podcast and video sections, and on our moderated discussion board, babble! Since rabble.ca's inception in 2001, our readership has grown by leaps and bounds while maintaining a loyal core readership: we get up to 450,000 unique visitors monthly, and we are growing.

Now in its 15th year, rabble.ca is a leading non-profit, independent online media organization dedicated to providing platforms and perspectives unavailable anywhere else in Canada. rabble.ca is built on the efforts of progressive journalists, writers, artists and activists across the country -- it's news for the rest of us.

rabble.ca's Vancouver office is currently seeking part-time outreach event volunteers, to expand our volunteer base in B.C.

Responsibilities:

- Working in collaboration with staff and other volunteers in disseminating information and speaking to the public at information tables, collecting emails for weekly announce list, and selling books, T-shirts, etc. as needed
- Helping with set up and take down at rabble.ca events and supported events
- Assisting with guest registration and greeting attendees at rabble.ca events
- Speaking to the public about rabble.ca, its mission and history (full training provided)

Opportunities:

- Involvement in rabble.ca's on-the-ground capacity
- Networking with like-minded organizations
- A chance to learn about independent and progressive media in Canada

Time commitment: 5 hours a month in Vancouver, B.C.

Please send an email to B.C. Outreach Coordinator Tania Ehret if you are interested in this position c/o tania@rabble.ca. Please note "rabble Vancouver event volunteer" in the subject line.
