WHAT ARE OUR CLIENTS SAYING?

“When we launched The Leap Manifesto in September 2015, it made front-page news across the country. That afternoon’s press conference included a live reading of the text by artists, activists and political figures, and we knew people would want to tune in to see it. We asked rabble to step in on short notice to help with the livestream – and they handled it beautifully. The shooting looked great and the streaming was flawless – we couldn’t have been happier with their work, and it felt great to work with a progressive partner that shared our values. ”

- KATIE MCKENNA, THE LEAP

“rabble.ca’s event team held a key role in the annual Women’s Forum that we hosted over the past few years. The live-blog, a robust social media support and the nearly-live posting of audio recordings from the various speakers that attended the Forum allowed feminists from across the country to participate and follow our gatherings remotely, and helped make these events trend in Canada on Twitter.”

- NIKI ASHTON, MP CHURCHILL-KEEWATINOOK ASKI

“rabble.ca provided invaluable support for our “Young, Canadian, Muslim” federal election debate. By livestreaming the Toronto event to viewing parties across the country, we were able to reach young voters from diverse communities right across Canada. It was a crucial opportunity to help educate, inform, and energize young voters. ”

- AMIRA ELGHAWABY, FORMER COMMUNICATIONS DIRECTOR, NATIONAL COUNCIL OF CANADIAN MUSLIMS
